Treating Wrong Disease.

Many times women call on their family physicians, suffering, as they imagine, one from dyspepsia, another from heart disease, another from liver or kidney disease, another from nervous exhaustion or prostration, another with pain here and there, and in this way they all present alike to themselves and their easy-going and indifferent, or over-busy doctor, separate and distinct diseases, for which he, assuming them to be such, prescribes his pills and potions. In reality, they are all only symptoms caused by some uterine disease. The physician, ignorant of the cause of suffering, encourages this practice until large bills are made. The suffering patient gets no better, but probably worse, by reason of the delay, wrong treatment and consequent complications. A proper medicine like Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, directed to the cause would have entirely removed the disease, thereby dispelling all those distressing symptoms, and instituting comfort instead of prolonged misery. It has been well said, that "a disease known is half cured."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a scientific medicine, carefully devised by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate system. It is made of native medicinal roots and is perfectly harmless in its effects in any condition of the system.

As a powerful invigorating tonic "Favorite Prescription" imparts strength to the whole system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. For overworked, "worn-out," "run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop girls," house-keepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequaled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic.

As a soothing and strengthening nervine "Favorite Prescription" is unequaled and is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, chorea, St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing, nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the uterus. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate the stomach, liver and bowels. One to three a dose. Easy to take as candy.

ANOTHER WONDER OF SCIENCE.

Biology has Proved that Dandruff is Caused by a Germ.

Science is doing wonders these days in medicine as well as in mechanics. Since Adam lived, the human race has been troubled with dandruff, for which no hair preparation has heretofore proved a successful cure until Newbro's Herpicide was put on the market. It is a scientific preparation that kills the germ that makes dandruff or scurf by digging into the scalp to get at the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality; causing itching scalp, falling hair, and finally baldness. Without dandruff hair must grow luxuriantly. It is the only destroyer of dandruff. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

FERTILIZER TRUST INDICTED.

The grand jury of the United States Circuit Court for the Middle District of Tennessee, yesterday, after four week's investigation of the alleged Fertilizer Trust, made their report to Judge Horace H. Lurton, returning an indictment against about 80 fertilizer manufacturers, including corporations, firms and individuals.

There were six counts in the indictment, which details in specific form alleged violations of anti-trust laws and charges the defendants with combining and being engaged in a trust or combination. The cases are to be called at the October term of the court in Nashville.

The six counts in the indictment are in a double series of three each. The first charges the defendants with engaging in a conspiracy; the second charges the defendants with conspiring, and the third with conspiring, under section 5,440, Revised Statutes, to commit the offense of engaging in a combination as defined by the Sherman law. The third count is new in form and procedure, and charges the committing of an offense against the United States of engaging in a combination in restraint of trade as defined and prohibited by the Sherman act.

The punishment under section 5,440 is two years in prison and a $10,000 fine. The third count is new in form and procedure. It charges the committing of an offense against the United States by engaging in a combination in restraint of trade, as defined and prohibited by the Sherman act.

The style of the case on the docket indictment is United States vs. Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company et al., and the indictment is described as "indictment for violating act of Congress approved July 2, 1890, and entitled 'An Act to Protect the Trade and Commerce Against Unlawful Restraints and Monopolies,' and section 5,440, Revised Statutes, United States.

Among the manufacturers indicted besides the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company are Armour & Co., Illinois; Alabama Chemical Company of New Jersey, Federal Chemical Company of Delaware, Goulding Fertilizer Company of Florida, National Fertilizer Company of Tennessee, New Orleans Acid and Fertilizer Company of New Jersey, F. S. Poynter Guano Company of Virginia, and Swift & Co., of Illinois.

The officers of the corporation are indicted in their capacities as officers, managers, agents and attorneys of the corporations and firms.

A Reminiscence.

Miss Mary Lee, the last surviving daughter of General Robert E Lee, is expected in Warrenton on Thursday at the home of Captain Edward Carter. She is a relative of Mrs. Carter who was Miss Jane Turner of Fauquier. No military leader in defeat retained the admiration, respect and love of his people as did General Lee. He passed through Warrenton once during the war and dined with Mrs. John Webb Tyler and was once a visitor at Leeton Forest when the Pollocks lived there. Mrs. Pollock was his first cousin. Since then Warrenton was never more honored than in the presence of his distinguished daughter, who wherever she goes, in the South, awakens thoughts of the sweetest, saddest things.

Years ago Mrs Ann Lee, the widow of Light Horse Harry, used to come to the home of Major Thos. Turner near The Plains, in Fauquier, and spend every other summer, bringing with her her son, Robert E. Lee, a youth of tender years, but so handsome in figure, so lovable in nature, so manly in spirit that in a period when children were repressed, he was accorded the consideration of grown people. No other boy could ride "Traveller" the saddle horse of old Major Turner. It was the memory of those rides that the hero of the Lost Cause gave the name of "Traveller" to his war horse and made it as famous in song and story as Bucephalus, the war steed of Alexander the Great.

Passing from the sublime to a lighter vein, we beg to record here an instance narrated to the writer by the late Mrs. Richards Payne, who was an inmate of the Turner home at the time when Mrs. Ann Lee and her son, Robert, were visiting there, and who, until her death, kept up her intimacy with the family

During the war Mrs. Thomas Turner, then a widow of great age and impaired in intellect, was still at the old Turner homestead, and General Lee, passing near the place to the fatal Gettysburg, in the height of his fame and glory rode by to see her, The old lady met him but could not connect the military hero with the gentle youth who used to ride old Traveller over the roads around The Plains. "Robert Lee, Robert Lee," she said, "what can Ann Lee be thinking of to let Robert go tantivying about the country in this way," No one knows what General Lee's emotions were at this desire for his mother to suppress him, but with the responsibility of a brilliantly conceived movement upon him, with hope or despair waiting him as a result, it is easy to imagine there passed through his mind the thought " once more who would not be a boy".—[Warrenton Virginian.

A Year of Blood.

The year 1903 will long be remembered in the home of F. N. Tackets, of Alliance, Ky., as a year of blood; which flowed so copiously from Mr. Tacket's lungs that death seemed very near. He writes: "Severe bleeding from the lungs and a frightful cough had brought me at death's door, when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, with the astonishing result that after taking four bottles I was completely restored and as time has proven permanently cured." Guaranteed for Sore Lungs, Coughs and Colds, at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Summer prices on coal. See our advertisement. W. A. SMOOT & CO.

Mr. Clint G. Ford who has been identified with the very foremost dramatic attractions, including Gillette's "Secret Service Co.," "David Harum," "The Clansman," etc., has this to say of Newbro's Herpicide:

"For years I was annoyed with dandruff and itching of the scalp, all due to my twenty years of theatrical life with its incumbent "make-up" and wig wearing At times the itching of the scalp was intense. All remedies failed me until I tried Herpicide, and I soon found that it was giving wonderful results. The itching and also the dandruff, entirely ceased and my hair resumed its natural life and vigor.

There is no question in my mind about the reality of the dandruff germ, and I unhesitatingly recommend Herpicide to my friends in the profession."

(Signed) CLINT G. FORD.

THEATRICAL FOLK

NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE.

Extravagant claims for total remedies do not influence theatrical people, because long experience enables them to discriminate intelligently. They demand merit and will rarely use a preparation that is not actually worth as much or more than it costs in dollars and cents

Herpicide kills the dandruff germ and by actual test does more good than all other hair remedies combined. This accounts for its popularity in theatrical circles.

"Queen Roselle" writes of Newbro's Herpicide:

"I take pleasure in announcing the very satisfactory results I have had from the use of Newbro's Herpicide. My hair was falling out so rapidly that I was afraid I would lose it all. A friend advised Herpicide and after using it faithfully my hair stopped falling out, the dandruff disappeared and my hair is now very soft and glossy.

I would like to see every lady of the profession try Herpicide, for I am confident that they would be delighted with it."

(Signed) QUEEN ROSELLE.

Liberality

TO OUR DEPOSITORS is one of the strong features in favor of this corporation, for where there is liberality there is conservatism and safety, for in being liberal with our patrons we are not only extending our business but also doing something which contributes to the general prosperity of our city. Since the day this institution first opened its doors for business and invited, encouraged and assisted the people of all ages and conditions in life to form correct habits of economy, and save some portion of their earnings, its success has been unexcelled by any banking institution in northern Virginia. We attribute our success largely to the fact that we have shared with our depositors OUR PROFITS by allowing them 3 PER CENT. interest in our Savings Department. The daily deposits of the executor, administrator, curator, assignee, receiver, trustee under decree or will, or order of court receive interest on their monthly balances. Liberal interest allowed on money deposited pending investment, and on certificates of deposits, and all other special accounts. This corporation has unsurpassed facilities for handling the accounts of banks, corporations and individuals, and solicits the same.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

SATURDAY EVENING, MAY 26, 1906.

AFTER A heated and exciting controversy, in which Representative Hepburn, of Iowa, was charged directly with plotting treachery to the public interests in connection with the railroad rate bill that measure was sent to conference yesterday afternoon, under a gag rule, which prevented the House from considering or acting upon any of the amendments made by the Senate. Messrs. Hepburn, Sherman, of New York, chairman of the republican congressional campaign committee, and Richardson, of Alabama, were named as the conferees to represent the House. All the suspicion that has attached to the jugglery the measure has been subjected to by the House leaders in the last week has been increased by yesterday's proceedings. It has reached a pitch where it is no longer concealed even by the republicans, and where the leaders themselves have been forced to realize that they are being watched, and will be held to strict accountability for the results of the conference

THE bloody shirt is still waved with effect in the halls of Congress, and when it points to an appropriation it generally "gets there." In the House yesterday, when private pension bills were being passed at the rate of twenty-five a minute, Mr. Williams demanded that there should be a quorum present, whereupon Mr. Dalzell asked if this was a filibuster against a union soldier? Mr. Williams promptly announced that he had intended to oppose all legislation until a conference report could be had on Statehood. But, in view of the fact that demagogues might distort the opposition of the democracy to pension bills, when there was no opposition to such bills, he would withhold his objections for the present, and then the passage of these bills for men who could not get pensions under the present liberal pension laws was resumed.

SENATOR BURTON refuses to resign, and imagines that because time has been allowed him to file an application for a rehearing his status is the same as it was before the Supreme Court passed on his case. He ought to have resigned upon conviction, but there can be no doubt whatever that resignation is obligatory upon him now that conviction has been sustained by the Supereme Court, even though he has another chance. As he refuses to resign, it is the duty of the Senate to expel him. Is a man fit for the Senate because it is still open to some question whether he is worthy of the penitentiary?

THE steady decline of marriages in Great Britain is shown in the statistics for 1904. There has been a fall of 19 per cent. in the marriage rate in the last thirty-five years. In explanation of this decline, it appears that the marriage rate for widows has fallen from 21.1 in 1872 to 12.5 in 1904, and that the rate of remarriage for widowers has fallen from 65.8 to 38 and that for bachelors from 61.7 to 52.8. The decline of marriages is not confined to Great Britain but seems to be general in all the "enlightened" countries.

THE RECEPTION of Princess Ena, the future wife of King Alfonso, in Spain disproves recent dispatches from Spain to the effect that the people of that country are tired of the monarchy and desire to upset the present order of things. The young couple have been welcomed with every evidence of fealty. This is pleasant to contemplate, and well-disposed people in all countries sincerely hope the journey through life of the royal pair will be one of pleasantness and all their paths peace.

DR. CHAUVEL, medical inspector of the French army, in a statistical report on cases of appendicitis, says that out of 668 patients in the mititary hospitals of France for this disease, 180 were operated upon, while 480 received purely medical treatment. Of the latter class there were but three deaths, whilet wenty-three of the surgical cases were lost. Dr. Chauval concludes that the cause is the improper feeding of the French.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, May 26,

The explanation of the adoption by the Senate yesterday of a rider to the agriculture appropriation bill, providing for a more rigid meat inspection in this country, is found in the fight behind the scenes the President has been carrying on against the beef trust. Notice has been served upon the trust if it dares to resist the rider the rider will be adopted by force. "Without scandal if possible, but with scandal if necessary," is the message the President has sent to the Chicago interests. Following the appearance of articles by "muck rakers" on the failure of governmental inspection to insure cleanliness and sanitation in the killing, butchering and canning of meats, the President sent two of his personal friends, Charles P. Neill, commissioner of labor, and James B. Reynolds, the wealthy New York philantrophist, to study the field and report to him if it was necessary to have further inspection, after the present inspection as to the health of the animals before being slaughtered. They spent the month of April on this work. Secretary of Agriculture Wilson also had a commission there. The beef trust learned of the investigations. They besought the President not to ruin their attempt to gain a foothold in European markets by making a public attack. His reply was that the doings of the beef interests was already published in Europe and that their own salvation lay in legislation that would guarantee correction of evils. He was willing to go about it quietly. A bill was hastily drawn by the Agriculture Department and the President's two personal investigators and introduced by Senator Beveridge. The Big Stick will see it through the House. Should the beef trust resist, the President will send a message to Congress making public the scandal report of his two friends, as yet only verbally reported to him.

Appropriation bills and discussion as to whether the United States should build a lock canal at Panama or one on the sea level plan will take up most of the time of the Senate next week. There will also be a debate on the resolution reported from the Senate committee on finance requiring purchases of material for the Panama canal to be made in this country unless prices are unreasonable in comparison with those offered by foreign bidders. This will be made the occasion for some tariff speeches from the democrats on a line similar to those which have been heard in the House to the effect that under the present laws the American consumer is forced to pay more for his goods than the foreigner. The postoffice appropriation bill will be taken up on Monday and the naval appropriation bill will follow soon thereafter. There is no expectation that legislation on the subject will be passed at this session. There is no reason to expect that the final adjournment of Congress will be delayed by the canal discussion. Both sides are tired and the leaders are preparing their plans to bring the work of Congress to an end about June 8 or 12.

The last great supply measures to be considered at this session of Congress will be taken up in the House next week. The diplomatic and consular bill, which has been before the House as a pretext for the deliverance of political speeches, will be disposed of, and the sundry civil bill will follow. The only additional appropriation bill to prepare is the general deficiency bill, which will be in readiness the week after. The House leaders say that the prospects for adjournment in June are excellent, but republican Floorleader Payne does not agree with Senator Aldrich who says that adjournment somewhere between June 10 and 15 is probable. Mr. Payne puts the date at least one week beyond that—anywhere between that and the first of July.

Riding about Washington and its outlying parks in a carriage, His Highness Maharaja Gaekwar, of Baroda, India, with his wife and brother, spent a quiet forenoon in the capital. He is an active personage and was on the go all the time. At 2:30 his party will take lunch at the White House and this evening dine with Senator Elkins.

Secretary of State Root has appointed a commission to meet at the State Department June 4th, to consider and recommend regulations for the reorganization of the consular service, as provided in the bill recently passed by Congress.

The Keep Commission, which has been investigating governmental methods of doing business in the executive departments, has taken under consideration the advisability of the government issuing an official gazette.

President Roosevelt this afternoon entertained His Highness the Gaikwar, Maharaja of Bareda, at luncheon. In addition to the Maharaja, the luncheon guests included the Maharaja's brother, Mr. Towuley the Charge d' Affaires of the British Embassy, and Secretaries Root and Taft.

The Chicago packing interests had their "innings" at the White House today when Speaker Cannon, Senator Cullen, and Representative Madden and Lorimer called to lodge a protest against the Beveridge beef inspection bill which has been passed by Senate and is now pending on the House.

To offset the heavy drain on the District funds resulting from the many extraordinary improvements in connection with the water service, the District Commissioners will order an increase of water rates to householders, to take effect after July 1.

California members of Congess have practically abandoned the effort to secure legislation allowing California to import building material duty free. The agitation was the outcome of the earthquake.

Chief Wilkie, of the Secret Service received a telegram from Kansas City, Kan., this morning, telling of the arrest there of Bernard Hicks who was engaged in fleecing young men who were anxious to become government detectives.

The receipt by the Russian government of the first shipment of war automobiles from a French concern has just been reported to this government. A Hotchkiss rapid-fire gun is mounted on a rear turret. The gunners are screened and look through loopholes. Two steel rails are carried, which can be quickly unshipped and placed over a ditch.

Much attention has been attracted in Washington to the invention by a concern in Springfield, Ohio, of a motor sleigh. It is claimed the vehicle can carry twenty-seven people ten miles an hour through the snow.

Tornadoes.

The residence of J. D. Duke, a farmer living eight miles east of Waxahachie, Tex., was struck by a tornado yesterday and demolished. An infant, 9 days old, was killed and other members of the family were injured.

A tornado struck Whiting, Iowa, yesterday evening and demolished a residence and a barn. The occupants of the house escaped injury by taking refuge in the cellar. A house on the same spot was wrecked by a similar storm three years ago.

A cyclone passed west of Oakland, Neb., yesterday. Doors and roofs were blown off and several persons were injured by flying timbers. In Oakland trees were twisted and a coal shed was blown on the railroad tracks. Large hailstones fell, breaking windows.

Fred H. Parks, aged 53, vice president of the International Paper Company, died at Glenn Falls, N. Y., at midnight. Death was due to Brights disease. Mr. Parks was brought up in the paper business, his father, the late S. A. Parks, being the pioneer manufacturer. The deceased recently returned from a sojourn in California.

News of the Day.

Rev. George E. Stockwell, pastor of Grace M. E Church, Troy N. Y. has been asked to accept the presidency of the Maryland College for women at Lutherasville, near Baltimore. He has the call under consideration.

As stated in the Gazette of that day, through the assistance of a gag rule and against the protest of twenty-five republicans who put themselves on record, the House managers yesterday sent the railroad-rate bill to conference after nonconcurring in all the amendments of the Senate in gross. Messrs. Hepburn, Sherman and Richardson were named as conferees.

The Senate yesterday passed the agricultural appropriation bill, carrying a total of $7,800,000, and then adjourned until Monday. A surprising development of the day was the adoption, without debate or division, of Mr. Beveridge's amendment increasing the efficiency and the severity of the meat-inspection service of the bureau of animal industry, by providing for government inspection of meats for domestic consumption.

Mrs. John Brown, of White Plains, N. Y., who died yesterday, weighed 500 pounds, and Undertaker Lyons is constructing a special casket for the body, and a double grave is being opened. It will be necessary to tear out part of the house from which the funeral will be held in order to get the casket out of it. Instead of a hearse, an open undertaker's wagon will be used to convey the corpse to the cemetery. Mrs. Brown was 34 years old.

Eastern State Hospital.

The ugly charge made by J. S. Moore, of Richmond, that D. C. Richardson has used his position as a member of the board of the Eastern State Hospital, at Williamsburg, Va., to improperly award contracts; the term "rascality," which this witness employed in describing the management of the institution, and his statement that the Governor of Virginia used his appointments for political ends and that his appointee got out of their offices "all they could," furnished the sensation of yesterday in the legislative investigation into the affairs of the Eastern State Hospital. Colonel Lawless denounced the statements as false, and branded as untrue the charge made against D. C. Richardson.

Perhaps the strangest part of Moore's testimony was the fact that he did not consider the act of Judge Richardson improper, but put it down as generous help from a friend of his boyhood. The witnesses, under a hot crossfire from Colonel Lawles, was made to defend his remarkable position. He finally testified that his knowledge was only hearsay as to the "rascality" action of the board and the officers of the hospital.

Regarding his charges against Richardson, Moore told three distinct stories. He said that Richardson, while a member of the board, had secured from him his private bid marks, and had used this knowledge to secure the awards of contracts for him. He testified that Richardson had told him after the awards had been made that he had picked out his samples by the private marks and had urged that they be selected. The denunciation of the witness by Colonel Lawless met with the approval of the people in the audience.

Colonel Lawless demanded of the committee that Mr. Richardson be summoned to answer the attack that had been made upon him, and Chairman Saddler in answer said that every opportunity would be given Judge Richardson to appear and deny the charge. The feeling seems to be that Judge Richardson has been misunderstood. Colonel Lane, the commissioner of the hospital, spent several hours on the stand and engaged in general discussion of the affairs of the hospital.

Fifty-ninth Congress.

Washington, May 26.

SENATE.

The Senate was not in session today, having adjourned yesterday until Monday.

HOUSE.

Representative Rucker, of Missouri, in the House this morning, made a speech in support of his bill looking to publicity in campaign contributions, and charged the republicans with insincerity in their treatment of the subject.

"The company has become aroused to the humiliating fact," he said, "that in recent years, corporations, trusts, insurance companies, and all those interests enjoying special privileges, have contributed enormous sums of money to campaign committees, which have been used to degrade, corrupt, and debauch the voter, and, perhaps, control results of elections."

He complained of the action of the majority of the House committee on elections of President and Vice President, which, by voting against a report on his bill, "dissipated the last hope for favorable action on the subject of publicity at this session of Congress. The action justifies a strong suspicion," he declared, "that at least some of the majority of our committee are at heart really opposed to the proposed legislation."

Representative Gaines, of West Virginia, chairman of the committee on election of President, Vice President and members in Congress, angered by Mr. Rucker's speech, replied briefly saying that a bill will come from the committee. The Rucker measure, he declared, was so faulty that it accomplished nothing toward honesty.

Mr. Perkins, republican, New York, made a statement to show that the taking away of political patronage of the members of the House, lengthened their terms of service as members.

Mr. Lamar, democrat, Florida, attacked the Hepburn bill, with the Senate amendments denouncing it as a "delusion and a snare."

Baseball in England.

London, May 26.—The movement to introduced baseball as an English sport is making fair progress. Several football clubs which see a chance of profit for themselves by utilizing their grounds during the summer months for baseball are now booming the matter. The last game netted forty pounds profit and the prospect of profitable gate receipts figures in the effort being made to popularize the game. A baseball association is now being formed in London and a team will also be sent to Paris to play. A match was played this afternoon on the memorial grounds of London between the Woolwich arsenal team and a picked team. The only American players on the teams were the catchers. This is the first match which has been played in London where the teams were made up almost entirely of British players.

Virginia News.

Mrs. Indiana Virginia Henry, widow of Capt. Edward M. Henry, died yesterday at the Norfolk Protestant Hospital, in the seventy-second year of her age.

The old Princess Anne Hotel, at Virginia Beach, has been sold for $125,000 to parties whose identity has not yet been revealed. The hostelry will be thoroughly remodeled for the Jamestown Exposition.

Mrs. Fannie G. Leavell, wife of Mrs. Wm. T. Leavell, died at her home, in Fredericksburg yesterday after a lingering illness. She was the eldest daughter of the late B. L. Leavell, of Spottsylvania county.

Mrs. Maggie Newton, wife of Lee R. Newton, died at her home, near Montesville, Stafford county, yesterday, of paralysis of the heart, aged 39 years. She was the daughter of the late James Robinson, of that county.

On Tuesday evening next the Sixth State Conference of Virginia Epworth Leagues will convene in Norfolk at the Cumberland Street Methodist Church. This conference will be a very interesting as well as helpful one to all who are interested in the Epworth Leagues or Christian work in the State.

The State corporation commission has notified the attorneys for the town of Strasburg that they will meet in Woodstock on May 31, to hear the controversy between the corporation of Strasburg and the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company. The corporation is trying to compel the railroad to run its trains into Strasburg, instead of Strasburg Junction.

Col. William Henry Mann, of Petersburg, announced his withdrawal yesterday as a candidate for the democratic congressional nomination in the Fourth district. Considerations of health were immediately instrumental in Colonel Mann's decision. The retirement of Mann and Yarrell leaves the field to Major F. R. Lassiter, of Petersburg, and the present democratic representative, R. G. Southall.

The statue of "Extra Billy" Smith, war governor of Virginia, was put in place yesterday in the Capitol Square, Richmond, in line with the monuments of Stonewall Jackson and Dr. Hunter McGuire, ready to be unveiled May 30 with appropriate ceremonies. The event in Governor Smith's life portrayed by the figure is the moment when he throws off the robes of civic office and grasps the sword in his military duty to the State.

Disorders in Russia.

During a meeting yesterday of revolutionary workmen in a wood in the outskirts of Moscow, two members of the secret police were discovered among the attendants. A court was immediately organized, before which the men were tried and condemned to death. As soon as sentence had been passed upon the men they were tied to trees and shot to death.

Subsequently four suspected members of the summary court were arrested, and upon them were found proclamations inciting to an armed revolt on May 27.

A spirit of the gravest unrest prevails among the industrial population in Moscow, thousands of whom are without work and starving. There are frequent collisions between the troops and the people.

Sergeant of Police Koal was shot and killed in the open streets in Grodno yesterday and Assistant Captain of Police Shaklio was wounded. There is great feeling against the terrorists.

Prof. Radetski, principal of the high school at Tula, Central Russia, was killed in the street yesterday by a youth of fifteen years. The crime was the outgrowth of attempts to suppress a revolutionary propaganda in the school. The murderer escaped.

M. Belkine, director of the Vitebsk tobacco factory, at Vitebsk, Russia, was killed yesterday for political reasons. The assassin escaped.

A large peasant proprietor named Kronberg, of German descent, was killed yesterday at Windau by a band of Lettish revolutionists.

M. Lefevre, the principal engineer of the Caucasus Railway shops at Tiflis, was killed yesterday. The crime is attributed to political motives.

Charge Not Sustained.

The General Assembly of the Southern Presbyterian Church at Greenville, S. C., yesterday disposed of the committee reports on close relations; decided upon Birmingham, Ala., for the meeting place of the Assembly next year, and made a final declaration on the Caldwell heresy case.

The special committee named to formulate the judgment of the General Assembly as a court in the Caldwell case reported that in sustaining the complaint of the session of the First Presbyterian Church of Fort Worth against the Synod of Texas the action of the Synod was reversed, and by this reversal of judgment Rev. William E. Caldwell has been since the day of his reception in the Presbytery of Fort Worth and is now a member of that Presbytery, and that since the date (November 30 1904) of his installation as pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Fort Worth he has been and is now pastor of that church.

The complaint of Dr. S. S. Laws against the Synod of Virginia will be considered before the final adjournment of the Assembly. This complaint is known as the polygamy case.

Killed by Explosion.

John Saunders was instantly killed and a half-dozen other persons more or less injured by an explosion of dynamite near Roanoke yesterday evening. The accident happened on tidewater construction work near the camp of Berry & Ferrats, railroad contractors. A charge of dynamite had been set and the fuse went out. Saunders undertook to remove the tamping from the hole. His iron bar came in contact with the explosive and it went off with terrific force, blowing Saunders into atoms, bits of his burned flesh being hurled several hundred yards. Saunders was from Franklin county and leaves a family.

Made Happy for Life.

Great happiness came into the home of S. C. Blair, school superintendent, at St. Albans, W. Va., when his little daughter was restored from the dreadful complaint he names. He says: "My little daughter had St. Vitus Dance, which yielded to no treatment but grew steadily worse until as a last resort we tried Electric Bitters; and I rejoice to say, three bottles effected a complete cure," Quick, sure cure for nervous complaints, general debility, female weaknesses, impoverished blood and malaria. Today's Telegraphic News

Princess Ena in Spain.

Madrid, May 26.—Fifty thousand people went to Hardo Villa today to acclaim Princess Ena, who will become the bride of King Alfonso next week. Special trains were run for the accomodation of the thousands of persons who wished to extend a welcome to the future Queen and so great was the rush that there was difficulty in handling the crowds. In addition to the special trains automobiles, coaches, carriages and vehicles of every description were called into service to carry the people to and from the palace where the princess will remain until after the wedding. The welcome given the Princess today was if anything more vociferous than that accorded her yesterday on her arrival in Spain. Every appearance of the future Queen before her subjects was greeted with tumultuous cheers and even when Ena and Alfonso were inside the palace, the shouts were kept up. Princess Ena was greatly affected by her reception yesterday. During the course of the day the young king and Princess Ena appeared several times in a balcony in response to the cheers from the crowds of people outside and they were cheered vehemently.

No Fight.

Los Angeles, Cal., May 26.—The pugilistic game got another black eye last night, when the white light weight championship fight between Battling Nelson and Aurelio Herrera was called off after three hours of wrangling. The men were to have fought before the Pacific Athletic Club for a purse of $20,000, and the fighters were to have weighed in at 133 pounds at six o'clock. The fighters met according to agreement and Nelson weighed in tipping the beam at 131 pounds. Herrera was ready to weigh in too, but Nelson and his manager suddenly came to the conclusion that the scales had been tampered with. There was a squabble and Nelson proposed to go to a bath and weigh again. In the mix up Herrera disappeared. Five thousand persons were in the house. The crowd filed out quietly. No one can make out Nolan's reason for refusing to let his fighter go on Nelson would have had a bonus of $4,000, win or lose. Beside that, the winner was to have had $9,600 and the loser $6,400.

Cyclones in Texas.

Fort Worth, Tex, May 26.—A cyclone is reported to have visited the section round Granger, in Williams county, about midnight last night, and much property is said to have been destroyed. A severe wind and rain storm prevailed all over that portion of the State last night, and telegraph and telephone wires were put out of commission. During a small cyclone that occurred in Ellis county, J. D. Duke, his wife and eight children were injured and a baby boy, nine days old, was killed. Two of the children were carried over 100 yards by the wind. One will probably die. The Duke home was entirely destroyed, the residence being scattered over the outlying field for a distance of half a mile. Considerable property in the vicinity was destroyed but no other fatalities are reported.

Express Train Derailed.

Schenectady, N. Y., May 26.—Express train No. 36 on the New York railroad was derailed at Hoffman's this morning. Eight express and baggage cars jumped the rails, blocking traffic in such a manner that all trains are now being sent over the detour. Six horses in one of the derailed cars were killed and one man, an express messenger, was slightly injured. It is believed the wreck was the result of the fish plates being tampered with by striking Italian section hands, who quit work on Thursday and have since been parading between here, Hofman and Amsterdam.

Government Reply Unsatisfactory.

St Petersburg May 26—In the reply of the government to the Douma as outlined by M. Goremeykin suggestions are made of several political, social and financial reforms, as well as for universal suffrage. The reply, however, rejects the Douma's demands for full amnesty for political offenders, and the appropriation of land. The failure of the government to agree to the demands of the Douma in its address to the throne is almost sure to cause trouble. Premier Goremykin himself is uneasy and fears there will be a conflict.

Yacht Race to Bermuda.

New York, May 26.—Weather conditions in all probability will be fine this afternoon for the start of the yacht race to Bermuda for Sir Thomas Lipton's $500 cup, under the auspices of the Brooklyn Yacht Club. The start will be made from Gravesend Bay at three o'clock and the finish will be off Hamilton, Bermuda, a distance of 650 miles.

Austrian Emperor Ill.

Berlin, May 26.—A dispatch to the Morgen Post from Vienna, says: "The Austrian emperor is seriously ill as he is suffering from internal inflammation. His physicians are showing considerable anxiety because of his advanced age. Owing to the emperor's rooted dislike to having the news of his ill health becoming publicly known, the truth has been kept secret. It is officially stated that the emperor is in normal condition. Nevertheless, he fears that his end is approaching."

Mrs. Davis Improving.

New York May. 26—Mrs Jefferson Davis, widow of the President of the Confederacy, who has been ill for several days at the Hotel Gerard, this city, he steadily improving. Mrs. J. Addison Hayes, her daughter, said this morning: "Mrs. Davis sat up for a short time yesterday afternoon and we now consider her a convalescent. Escaped on a Locomotive.

Jiminez, Mexico, May 26.—T. Joe Larcey, an American, employed as passenger conductor for the Mexican Central Railroad, has just made one of the most daring escapes from this country ever known. He shot and killed a Mexican at a dance three nights ago. He fled and stopped a northbound passenger train. Six Mexican police were on the trail waiting for him. They ordered Larcey to surrender. Instead of obeying the command, he drew his own pistol upon the Mexican police and ordered them off the train. They did so, and Larcey cut the locomotive loose from the train. George Dempsey, the engineer, was forced to remain at the throttle. The two men then began a wild ride toward the Texas border, 370 miles distant. The train dispatcher was notified, and, fearing an accident, cleared the track. The run from Jiminez to Chihuahua, 145 miles, was made in record-breaking time. A stop for water was made and the police attempted to capture Larcey. Dempsey opened the throttle wide and sped for the Rio Grande. They are said to be safe.

Portsmouth, Va., May 26—Plans for the reception of President Roosevelt and his party, who will come here on Wednesday to participate in the unveiling of the monument erected by the Army and Navy Union, have been practically completed. Fully 4,000 men will be in the parade, including 1,000 sailors; Seventy-first regiment of infantry, Virginia volunteers, and civic organizations. The city is being decorated and the President's reception will be one of the most cordial ever rendered so distinguished a visitor in the city. School children will see the parade from numerous reviewing stands along the line of march, and the President is expected to pause and deliver a few remarks to the young Americans while driving from the navy yard landing, where he leaves the yacht Mayflower, to the United States Naval Hospital cemetery, where he will deliver the address at the unveiling of the monument.

Attempted Assault.

Camden, N. J., May 26.—Captain Slocum, of the yacht Spray, in which he sailed alone around the world, was this morning sent to the Mount Holly jail for attempted assault upon ten-year old Elsie Wright, daughter of a prominent Riverton citizen. Captain Slocum has been at Riverton as the guest of the fashionable yacht club and the alleged victim is a daughter of one of the members. The child claims the crime was attempted in the cabin of the Spray yesterday morning. Men in naphtha launches and automobiles hunted for Slocum last night, as it was reported he had left the town.

Pinafore

This dainty and tuneful opera was last night, splendidly rendered by "Sharps and Flats" at Hill's Opera House. The theatre was crowded to the doors by a representative audience and the continued applause was ample evidence of the appreciation of the efforts of the popular amateur performers. The chorus was strong and uniformly good and the beautiful girls and hand some sailor lads presented an attractive spectacle. As Josephine, Mrs. B. F. Downham was in fine voice and only added to the laurels she has so deservedly won in the past. Mrs. Raymond Hulfish, as Cousin Hebe, pleased all by an able rendition of her part.

The part of Little Buttercup was in the hands of Miss Bernice Moore, of Washington. Not until Monday night was the part given her and though she had but three rehearsals she was fully equal to the occasion, and in this her first principal part she made a great hit. Her spirit and dash added life to the whole production.

Messrs. Claybaugh, Stevens, Moore and Bryant, all local favorites, were the recipients of great ovations and were encored repeatedly. Their work was well worthy of the appreciation shown it. Mr. George Evans, whom all are ever ready to listen to, laugh at and enjoy, with his natural humor and grand voice, made the part of Sir Joseph Porter very enjoyable. To Mrs. M. W. O'Brien, the efficient leader, great credit is due for the success of the performance. Remarkable indeed, it is, that with rehearsals lasting less than one month she should be able to produce the smooth and highly creditable performance of last night.

As is generally known, Pinafore was presented as a testimonial and the members of the organization were greatly pleased with the manner in which the people of the city, by their attendance and generosity assisted them in a worthy cause.

Accident at Ferry Wharf.

A horse attached to a wagon belonging to F. H. Finley & Son, manufacturers of mineral water, collided with the ticket office of the Norfolk and Washington ferry company on lower King street yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, causing considerable damage to the office and some injury to the horse. The wagon had been run rapidly down King street for the purpose of boarding the 3 o'clock boat for Washington, but when the vehicle reached the gate leading to the boat it was found to be closed, as the steamer was about to leave the dock, and the wagon, having considerable momentum, could not be stopped and collided with the ticket office. The driver was thrown to the ground and a number of bottles were smashed. The horse's head went through the glass of the window of the ticket office, causing considerable consternation to those employed therein.

The Market.

The supply of country produce in market this morning was not above the usual Saturday morning display. Prices in the main were unchanged. A few home-grown strawberries were offered for sale. The best brought 15 cents per box but most of the offerings sold at 12½ Some berries were on the benches of country people. They sold at 10 cents a box. Country people are complaining of the prevailing drougth.

Death of Mr. Hamersley.

Mr. James F. Hamersley, an old and esteemed resident, died at his home on Duke street last night. The deceased had recently been a sufferer from organic disease. He leaves a widow and two daughters. Mr. Hamersley was a son of the late William Hamersley. For a number of years he had been a Justice of the Peace for the Fourth ward. The deceased was 65 years old.

Death of Mrs. Tomlin.

Mrs. Sarah A. Tomlin, widow of Robert Tomlin, and mother of Mr. W. O. Tomlin, died last night at her home, No. 111 north St. Asaph street. The deceased was one of the oldest residents of Alexandria, having been born in this city 87 years ago.

Luna Park.

Luna Park will be opened on Monday next and close September 22nd This will doubtless prove one of the most attractive rural resorts in the vicinity of Alexandria. There will positively be no liquor sold or permitted on the grounds, nor will there be gambling devices of any character. No devices to take money from anybody with a return of value will be permitted on the grounds. Luna Park is situated midway between Alexandria and Washington, and can be reached in a few minutes from either city. There will be band concerts and hippodrome stage performances twice daily. Opening week, Liberati's Band of sixty pieces and Bessie Valdare Bicycle Troupe of six English girls. Second week, Philippini Band 50 pieces, and the Norrins high divers. There are chutes, 278 feet high; scenic river, 2,200 feet long; circle swing, 160 feet high; ten cars; roller coaster with speed of 180 miles on steepest grade; a broad trail flanked by all the usual Ingersoll Park attractions; lagoon, capacity, 350,000 gallons of water and lake, capacity 273,000 gallons; largest carousal in the world. There is a double gate entrance surmounted by new moons and a blazing dome and approximately 50,000 lights, from incandescent to arc.

The lot of ground and dwelling thereon, No. 209 south Patrick street, was withdrawn from insufficiency of bid, and the household and kitchen furniture advertised will be sold at a future date on the premises of No. 209 south Patrick street.

Case Set for Monday.

J. E Witbeck, Sam Kobre and Wm. Plean were arraigned at Winston-Salem, N. C, Thursday morning before Judge Peebles upon the charge of having murdered Henry Kobre, the grand jury having found a true bill. The three men were asked to stand while the bill of indictment was read. They were then asked to plead to the charge. They answered "not guilty." The case was set for Monday next. Mr. C. B. Watson, one of the counsel for the defense, wished more time, but Judge Peebles ruled it to a hearing for Monday. Neither Witbeck nor Plean seem to have suffered physically from their incarceration, but Sam Kobre appeared rather pale. The counsel asked that a special venire of 125 men be summoned, from which the jury will be selected to hear the case.

Officer Gill and Special Officer Mullen entered the place and arrested the man and took him to the station house. It was charged by the proprietor of the place that the young man had defaced the property by throwing bottles about the room. The accused was brought before the Police Court this morning and fined $5.

SATURDAY EVENING, MAY 26, 1906.

Fled Across Mason and Dixon Line.

Threatened with summary punishment if they refused to obey, Edward Collins, white, and his negro wife on Thursday night left their home, at Indian Springs, Washington county, Md., and fled across the Mason and Dixon Line into Pennsylvania. The couple were married at Chambersburg, Pa., several weeks ago, and since their return to Washington county a strong feeling against them has developed among their neighbors. Ten days ago a band of men visited the farm for the purpose of treating Collins and his wife to a coat of tar and feathers. On that occasion, however, they were driven off by the woman with her revolver.

On Thursday night, a man approached the Collins farm on horseback and when within calling distance he warned the couple to leave, giving them just 30 minutes in which to prepare for flight. The rider told Collins and his wife that a band of men with ropes and lashes were within calling distance and that if the couple failed to heed his command they would have to take the consequences. The negress and her white husband pleaded for more time, but the messenger said the instructions of the mob must be obeyed.

Reduced to a state of terror, Collins quickly saddled a pair of mules, while the woman packed a few of their belongings and some food. Mounting the mules, the couple were soon in full flight toward Pennsylvania. It was not until they had crossed the line that they felt safe and sought refuge at a farmhouse. Both were completely exhausted from their trying experience and long ride.

Believes God Cured Her.

That God appeared in a vision and directed treatment which cured her of paralysis and restored her sight is the firm belief of Miss Louise Tahse, of Cincinnati, who, for several months past has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Sherwin, of Springfield, Mass. Six years ago Miss Tahse was injured by a truck while crossing a street in Cincinnati. Twenty-five specialists of all schools and cults concurred in the opinion that Miss Tahse would never be able to leave her wheel chair without assistance and the courts awarded her damages of $10,000. On last Sunday night Miss Tahse says that she was visited by an unseen spirit. She knows, she says, that God was present. The spirit ordered her to take an ice cold bath and to don an immaculate rob. She complied and when she awoke at midnight the spirit told her that Jacob's ladder awaited her on the roof of the piazza. Miss Tahse crawled out upon the roof, viewed the ladder, waived her hands on high and returned to bed. On Monday she was delirious and two physicians restrained her with difficulty. She hurled her crutches from her bedside and threw her glasses after them. She awoke yesterday without bodily ailments.

Had a Close Call.

"A dangerous surgical operation, involving the removal of a malignant ulcer, as large as my hand, from my daughter's hip, was prevented by the application of Bucklen's Arnica Salve," says A. C. Standard's Methods.

A total of 19 witnesses was called by Interstate Commerce Commissioners Prouty and Clements in the Standard Oil inquiry at Cleveland, Ohio, yesterday. Testimony bordering on the sensational was obtained from several witnesses. That of George L. Lane, of Mansfield, O., a former employe of the Standard Oil Company, was regarded as particularly important. According to his evidence, Lane was for about 14 months, in 1901 and 1902, employed by the Standard Oil Company for the particular purpose of driving all of the independent oil peddlers in a dozen or more of the principal cities and towns of northern Ohio out of business. He said he was employed by C. M. Lyons, of the Cleveland office of the Standard Oil Company, to go to certain designated places and use every means, fair or foul, to force the independents to quit. He describes the methods pursued in detail. "My instructions," he said, "were to kill them, and I was told that if I could not do the job, somebody would be got to take my place.
